O'CONNELL S LETTER ON SLAVERY

The Committee to whom the Address from the Cincinnati Irish Repeal Association, on the subject of Negro Slavery in the United States of America was referred, have agreed to the following Report.

To D T D[illegible], Esq, Corresponding Secretary, W H H[illegible], Esq, V[illegible] P[illegible] of the Executive Committee of the Cincinnati Irish Repeal Association

CORN EXCHANGE ROOMS, }
DUBLIN, Oct 11th, 1843 }

GENTLEMEN - We have read with the deepest affliction not unmixed with some surprise and much indignation, your detailed and anxious vindication of the most hideous crime that has ever stained humanity— the slavery of men of color in the United States of America We are lost in utter amazement at the perversion of mind and depravity of heart which your Address evinces How can the generous, the charitable, the humane, the noble emotions of the Irish heart, have become extinct among you? How can your nature be so totally changed as that you should become the apologists and advocates of that execrable system which makes man the property of his fellow man—destroying the foundations of all moral and social virtues—condemns to ignorance immorality, and irreligion millions of our fellow creatures— renders the slave hopeless of relief and perpetuates oppression by law, and in the name of what you call a Constitution!

It was not in Ireland you learned this cruelty Your mothers were kind gentle and humane Their bosoms overflowed with the honey of human charity Your sisters are probably, many of them, still among us, and participate in all that is good and benevolent in sentiment and action How, then, can you become so depraved? How can your souls have become stained with a darkness blacker than the negro's skin? You say you have no pecuniary interest in Slavery Would that you had? for it might be some palliation of your crime but alas! you have inflicted upon us the horror of beholding you the volunteer advocates of despotism in its most frightful state—of Slavery, in its most loathsome and unrelenting form

We were unhappily, prepared to expect some fearful exhibition of this description There has been a testimony borne against the Irish by birth or descent, in America, by a person fully informed as to the facts, and incapable of the slightest misrepresentation, a noble of nature more than of titled birth, a man gifted with the highest order of talent and the most generous emotions of the heart—the great, the good Lord Morpeth he who in the House of Commons boldly asserted the superior social morality of the poorer classes of the Irish over any other people he, the best friend of any of the Celtic race that Ireland and the Irish ever knew—he, amid the congregated thousands of Exeter Hall, London, mournfully, but firmly denounced the Irish in America as the worst enemies of the negro slaves and other men of color

It is, therefore, our solemn and sacred duty to warn you, in words already used, and much misunderstood by you—"to come out of her"—not thereby meaning to ask you to come out of America, but out of the councils of the iniquitous, and out of the congregation of the wicked, who consider man a chattel and a property and liberty an inconvenience Yes We tell you to come out of such assemblages but we did not and do not invite you to return to Ireland The volunteer defenders of Slavery, surrounded by one thousand crimes, would find neither sympathy nor support among native, uncontaminated Irishmen Your advocacy of slavery is founded upon a gross error. You take for granted that man can be the property of his fellow-man You speak in terms of indignation of those who would deprive white men of their "property," and thereby render themselves capable of supporting their families in affluence. You forget the other side of the picture. You have neither sorrow nor sympathy for the sufferings of those who are iniquitously compelled to labor for the affluence of others, those who work without wages—who toil without recompense—who spend their lives in procuring for others the splendor and wealth in which they do not participate. You totally forget the sufferings of the wretched black men, who are deprived of their all without any compensation or redress If you, yourselves, all of you—or if any one of you were without crime or offence committed by you handed over into perpetual slavery, if you were compelled to work from sunrise to sunset without wages, supplied only with such coarse food and raiment as would keep you in working order, if when your "owner" fell into debt you were sold to pay his debts, and not your own, if it were made a crime to teach you to read and to write, if you were liable to be separated, in the distribution of assets, from your wives and your children, if you (above all) were to fall into the hands of a brutal master—and you condescended to admit that there are some brutal masters in America if, among all these circumstances, some friendly spirits of a more generous order were desirous to give liberty to you and your families - with what ineffable disgust would not you laugh to scorn those who should traduce the generous spirits who would relieve you, as you now, pseudo Irishmen shame upon you! have traduced and vilified the Abolitionists of North America!

But you came forward with a justification forsooth! You say the Constitution of America prohibits the abolition of slavery Paltry and miserable subterfuge! The Constitution of America is founded upon the Declaration of Independence. The Declaration published to the world its glorious principles, that charter of your Freedom contained these emphatic words

"We hold these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by the Creator with certain inalienable rights that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," and the conclusion of that address is in these words

"For the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge each other our lives, our fortunes and sacred honor"

There is American honor for you! There is a profane allusion to the adorable Creator!

Recollect that the Declaration does not limit the equality of man, or the right to life and liberty, to the white, to the brown or to the copper colored races. It indulges all races It excludes none

We do not deign to argue with you on the terms of the American Constitution, and yet we cannot help asserting that in that Constitution the word "Slavery," or "Slave" is not to be found. There are indeed the words "persons bound to labor," but it is not said how bound And a constitutional lawyer or judge, construing the American Constitution with reference to the Declaration of Independence which is its basis, would not hesitate to decide that "bound to labor" ought in a court of justice to mean "bound by contract to labor," and should not be held to "forced or compelled to labor," in the absence of all contract and for the exclusive benefit of others

However, we repeat we do not deign to argue this point with you, as we proclaim to the world our own conviction that no constitutional law can create or sanction Slavery Slavery is repugnant to the first principles of society but it is enough for us to say, as regards Americans that it is utterly repugnant to that declaration of equality of all men to life and liberty To this declaration the free citizens of the United States have, in the persons of their ancestors solemnly pledged their SACRED HONOR."

We shall at once show you how that "sacred honor" is basely violated, and also demonstrate how totally devoid of candor your address is inasmuch as you rely upon the Constitution of the United States as precluding the abolition of slavery, while you totally omit all mention of one district, which the constitution, it is alleged by you does not reach. We mean the District of Columbia.

In the District of Columbia there is no constitutional law to prevent the Congress from totally abolishing slavery in that District Your Capitol is there The Temple of American Freedom is there—the Hall of your Republican Representatives—the Hall of your Republican Senators—the National Palace of your Republican President is there—and slavery is there also in its most revolting form! The slave trade is there—the most disgusting traffic in human beings is there—human flesh is bought and sold like [illegible] in the [illegible] market, in your Capital, your Washington! Yes Let Americans boast as proud as they please this black spot is on their escutcheon Under the shade of the Temple of the [illegible], the man of color crawls a slave, and the [illegible] American stalks a tyrant

The cruelty of the slave principle rests not there—it goes much further The [illegible] and political privilege even of prayer is denied them and you even you [illegible] Irishmen are the [illegible] of [illegible] system What! would not you at least, [illegible] that their groans should be heard!

It is certainly still further [illegible] on the free born white Americans are not allowed to petition upon a subject including the subject of slavery or at least, no such petition can be read aloud or printed And although Congress is entitled to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, the door for petition, praying that abolition, is closed without the power of being opened

We really think that men who came from generous and warm hearted Ireland, should shrink into nonentity rather than become the advocates and defenders of the system of Slavery But we trust that the voice of indignant Ireland will scatter them, and prevent them from repeating such a crime

In another point of view your address is, if possible, more culpable You state that before the Abolitionists proclaimed their wish to have Slavery abolished, several slaveholding States were preparing for the gradual emancipation of their negroes, and that humane individuals in other States were about to adopt similar measures

We utterly deny your assertion and defy you to show any single instance of preparatory steps by any State for the emancipation of negroes before the Abolition demand was raised. You violate truth in that assertion There were no such preparations It is a pure fiction invented by slaveholders out of their unjust animosity to the Abolitionists It is said that the fear of abolition has rendered the slaveholders more strict harsh and cruel toward their wretched slaves and that they would be more gentle and humane if they were not afraid of the Abolitionists We repeat that this is not true and is merely an attempt to cast blame on those who would coalesce to put an end to Negro Slavery

It is in the same spirit that the criminal calumniates his persecutor and the felon reviles his accuser It is, therefore, utterly untrue that the slaveholders have made the chains of the negro more heavy through fear of abolition

Yet, if you tell the truth, if the fact be that the negro is made to suffer for the zeal of the Abolitionists, if he is treated with increased cruelty by reason of the taunts of the friends of abolition, then, indeed, the slaveholders must be a truly Satanic race Their conduct, according to you is diabolical The Abolitionists commit an offence, and the unhappy negroes are punished The Abolitionists violate the law of property and penalty of their crime is imposed upon the negro Can anything be more repugnant to every idea of justice? Yet this is your statement

We, on the other hand, utterly deny the truth of your allegations and where we find you calumniate the slaveholders, we become their advocates against their calumny You calumniate every body—slaves, abolitionists and slaveholders framers of Constitutions, makers of laws—every body! The slaveholders are not favorites of ours, but we will do men justice and will not permit you to impute an impossible crime to them

You tell us with an air of triumph, that public opinion, in your country, is the great law giver If it be so, how much does it enhance the guilt of your conduct, that you seek to turn public opinion against the slave and in favor of the slaveholder, that you laud the master as generous and humane, and disparage as much as you can the unhappy slave, instead of influencing as Irishmen ought to do, the public mind in favor of the oppressed You carry your exaggerations to a ludicrous pitch, denoting your utter ignorance of the history of the human race.

You say that "the negro is really inferior as a race that Slavery has stamped its debasing influence upon the Africans, that between him and the white—almost a century would be required to elevate the character of the one and to destroy the antipathies of the other" You add—we use your own words—"The very odor of the negro is almost insufferable to the white, and however much humanity may lament it we make no rash declaration when we say the two races cannot exist together on equal terms under our Government and our Institutions"

We quote this paragraph at full length, because it is replete with your mischievous errors and guilty mode of thinking

In the first place as to the odor of the negroes we are quite aware that they have not as yet come to use much of the otto of roses or eau de cologne But we implore of your fastidiousness to recollect that multitudes of the children of white men have negro women for their mothers and that our British travelers complain in loud and bitter terms of the overpowering stench of stale tobacco spittle as the prevailing "odor" among the native free Americans It would be better perhaps to check this nasal sensibility on both sides, on the part of the whites as well as of the blacks. But it is, indeed, deplorable, that you should use a ludicrous assertion of that description as one of the inducements to prevent the abolition of Slavery The negroes would certainly smell at least as sweet when free as they now do, being slaves

Your important allegation is, that the negroes are naturally, an inferior race That is a totally gratuitous assertion upon your part. In America you can have no opportunity of seeing the negro educated. On the contrary, in most of your States it is a crime—sacred Heaven!—a crime to educate even a free negro! How, then, can you judge of the negro race, when you see them despised and contemned by educated classes reviled and looked down upon as inferior? The negro race has, naturally, some of the finest qualities They are naturally gentle, generous, humane and very grateful for kindness They are as brave and fearless as any other of the race of human beings, but the blessings of education are kept from them, and they are judged of, not as they would be with proper cultivation, but as they are rendered by cruel and debasing oppression. It is as old as the days of Homer, who truly asserts that the day which sees a man a slave takes away half his worth. Slavery actually brutalizes human beings

It is about sixty years ago when one of the Shieks, not far south of Fez in Morocco, who was in the habit of accumulating white slaves, upon being strongly remonstrated with by a European Power gave for his reply that by his own experience he found it quite manifest that white men were of an inferior race intended by nature for slaves and produced his wretched white slaves to illustrate the truth of his assertion And a case of an American with a historic name—John Adams—is quite familiar Some twenty five years ago, not more, John Adams was the sole survivor of an American crew wrecked on the African coast He was taken into the interior as the slave of an Arab chief He was only for three years a slave, and the English and American consuls having [illegible] for a white man a slavery [illegible] ransomed his liberation In the short space of three years he had become completely brutalized he had completely forgotten the English language without having acquired the native tongue He spoke a kind of gabble as unintellectual as the dialects of most of your negro slaves and many months elapsed before he recovered his former habits and ideas

It is also a curious fact is connected with America, that the children of the Anglo Saxon race, and of other Europeans born America were for many years considered a degraded and inferior class Indeed, it was admitted as if it were an axiom that the native born American was in nothing equal to his European progenitor and so far from the fact being disputed, many philosophic dissertations were published endeavoring to account for the alleged debasement The only doubt was about the cause of it "Nobody doubted," to use your own words, that the native born Americans were really an inferior race" Nobody dares to say so now, and nobody thinks it Let it then be recollected that you have never yet seen the negro educated. An English traveller through Brazil, some few years ago, mentions having known a negro who was a priest and who was a learned, pious and exemplary man in his sacerdotal functions We have lately been informed of two negroes being educated at the Propaganda, and ordained priests both having [illegible] themselves [illegible] The French paper say that [illegible] a short but able sermon before Louis Philippe It is rather [illegible]ed they have gone [illegible] with the right Rev Dr [illegible] in the African mission

We repeat therefore [illegible] properly of the negro [illegible] educated and treated with [illegible] insulted by the filthy aristocracy of the skin and unvarnished to the eye of the white by any associations connected with the state of slavery

We next refer to your declaration that the two races, viz, the black and white cannot exist on equal terms under your Government and your institutions This is an extraordinary assertion to be made at the present day You allude indeed to Antigua and Bermudas But we will take you to where the experiment has been successfully made upon a large scale—namely, to Jamaica

There the two races are on a perfect equality in point of law The law does not recognize the slightest distinction between the races. You have borrowed the far greater part of your Address from the cant phraseology which the West Indian slave owners and especially those of Jamaica made use of before emancipation They used to assert as you do now that abolition meant destruction that to give freedom to the negro would be to pronounce the assassination of the whites that the negro, as soon as free would massacre their former owners and destroy their wives and families. In short your prophecies of the destructive effects of emancipation are but faint and feeble echoes of the prophetic apprehensions of the British slaveowners They might perhaps, have believed their own assertions, because the emancipation of the negroes was then an untried experiment. But you—you are deprived of any excuse for a reassertion of a disproved calumny

The emancipation has taken place—the compensation given by England was not given to the negroes, who were the only persons that deserved compensation It was given to the so called "owners" It was an additional wrong- an additional outrage—an additional cause of irritation to the negroes but, gracious Heaven! how nobly did that good and kindly race- the negroes—falsify the calumnious apprehensions of their taskmasters! Was there one single murder consequent on the emancipation? Was there one riot—one tumult—even one assault! Was there one single white person injured, either in person or property? Was there any property spoiled or laid waste? The proportion of negroes in Jamaica to white men is as 300 to 60, or 80 per cent Yet the most perfect tranquility has followed the emancipation The criminal courts are almost unemployed: nine tenths of the jails are empty and open, universal tranquility reigns Although the landed proprietors have made use of the harshest landlord power to exact the hardest terms by way of rent, from the negro, and have also endeavored to extort from him the largest possible quantity of labor for the smallest wages, yet the kindly negro race have not retaliated by one single act of violence or of vengeance, the two races exist together, upon equal terms, under the British Government and under British institutions

Or shall you say that the British Government and British institutions are preferable to yours? The vain and vaporing spirit of mistaken republicanism will not permit you to avow the British superiority You are bound, however to admit that superiority or else to admit the falsity of your own assertions Nothing can, in truth, be more ludicrous than your declaration in favor of slavery It, however, sometimes rises to the very border of blasphemy Your words are "God forbid that we should advocate human bondage in any shape!"

Oh, shame upon you! How can you take the name of the All Good Creator thus in vain? What are you doing? Is not the entire of your Address an advocacy of human bondage?

Another piece of silliness. You allege that it is the Abolitionists who make the slave restless with his condition, and that they scatter the seeds of discontent How can you treat us with such contempt as to use assertions of that kind in your Address? How can you think we could be so devoid of intelligence as to believe the negro would not know the miseries of slavery, which he feels every hour of the four and twenty, unless he were told by some Abolitionist that Slavery was a miserable condition?

There is nothing that makes us think so badly of you as your strain of ribaldry in attacking the Abolitionists

The desire to procure abolition is, in itself, a virtue, and deserves our love for its charitable disposition, as it does respect and veneration for its courage under unfavorable circumstances Instead of the ribaldry of your attack upon the Abolitionists, you ought to respect and encourage them. If they err by excessive zeal, they err in a righteous and holy cause You would do well to check their errors and mitigate their zeal within the bounds of strict propriety But if you had the genuine feelings of Irishmen, you never would confound their errors with their virtues In truth we much fear, or rather we should candidly say we readily believe that you attribute to them imaginary errors, for no other reason than that they really possess one brilliant virtue, namely, the love of human freedom in intense perfection

Again, we have to remark that you exaggerate exceedingly when you state that there are fifteen millions of the white population in America whose security and happiness are connected with the maintenance of the system of negro slavery

On the contrary the system of slavery inflicts nothing but misery upon the far greater portion of the inhabitants of America The only places in which individual interest is connected with slavery is the slaveholding States. Now, in those States, almost without any exception (if, indeed, there be any exception) the people of color greatly exceed the whites, and thus, even if an injury were to be inflicted on the whites by depriving them of their slaves, the advantages would be most abundantly counterbalanced and compensated for by the infinitely greater number of persons who would thus be restored to the greatest of human blessings—personal liberty Thus the old Benthamite maxim of "doing the greatest possible good to the greatest possible number" would be amply carried out into effect by the emancipation of the negroes

You charge the Abolitionists as with a crime that they encourage a negro flying from Kentucky, to steal a horse from an inhabitant of Ohio in order to aid him, if necessary, to make his escape We are not, upon full reflection, sufficiently versed in casuistry to decide whether under such circumstances, the taking of the horse would be an excusable act or not. But, even conceding that it would be sinful, we are of this quite certain that there is not one of you who addressed us, who, if he were under similar circumstances that is having no other means of escaping perpetual slavery, would not make free with your neighbor's horse to effectuate your just and reasonable purpose And we are also sure of this, that there is not one of you, who, if he were compelled to spend the rest of his life as a personal slave, worked, and beaten, and sold, and transferred from hand to hand, and separated at his master's caprice from wife and family—consigned to ignorance—working without wages, toiling without reward, without any other stimulant to that toil and labor than the driver's cart whip, we do say that there is not one of you who would not think that the name of pickpocket, thief, or felon, would not be too courteous a name for the being who kept you in such thraldom

We cannot avoid repeating our astonishment that you, Irishmen, should be so devoid of every trace of humanity as to become the voluntary and pecuniarily disinterested advocates of human slavery and especially that you should be so in America But what excites our unspeakable loathing is to find that in your address you speak of men being the property of man of one human being the property of another, with as little hesitation or repugnance, as if you were speaking of the beasts of the field It is this that fills us with utter astonishment It is this that makes us disclaim you as countrymen. We cannot bring ourselves to believe that you breathed your natal air in Ireland—Ireland the first of all the nations of the earth that abolished the dealing in slaves The slave trade of that day was, curious enough a slave trade in British youth—Ireland, that never was stained with negro slave trading—Ireland, that never committed an offence against the men of color—Ireland, that never fitted out a single vessel for the traffic in blood on the African coast

It is to be sure, afflicting and heart rending to me to think that so many of the Irish in America should be so degenerated as to be among the worst enemies of the people of color Alas! alas! we have that fact placed beyond a doubt by the indisputable testimony of Lord Morpeth This is all that that we would fain wipe off the escutcheon of expatriated Irishmen

Have you enough of the genuine Irishman left in you to ask what it is that we require you to do? It is this

First We call upon you, in the sacred name of humanity never again to volunteer [illegible] of the oppressor, nor even for any self interest to vindicate the hideous crime of personal slavery

Second We ask you to assist, in every way you can, in promoting the education of the freemen of color, and in discountenancing the foolish feeling of selfishness—of that criminal selfishness which makes the white man treat the man of color as a degraded being

Third We ask you to assist in obtaining for the free men of color the full benefit of all the rights and franchises of a freeman in whatever State he may inhabit

Fourth We ask you to exert yourselves in endeavoring to procure for the man of color, in every case, the benefit of a trial by jury, and especially where a man, insisting that he is a free man, is claimed to be a slave

Fifth We ask you to exert yourselves in every possible way, to induce slaveholders to emancipate as many slaves as possible The Quakers of America have several societies for this purpose Who should not the Irish imitate them in that virtue?

Sixth We ask you to exert yourselves in all the ways you possibly can to put an end to the internal slave trade of the States The breeding of slaves for sale is, probably, the most immoral and debasing practice ever known in the world It is a crime of the most hideous kind, and if there were no other crime committed by the Americans, this alone would place the advocates, supporters and practicers of American slavery in the lowest grades of criminals.

Seventh We ask you to use every exertion in your power to procure the Abolition of Slavery by the Congress in the District of Columbia

Eighth We ask you to use your best exertions to compel the Congress to receive and read the petitions of the wretched negroes, and above all, the petitions of their white advocates.

Ninth We ask you never to cease your efforts until the crime of which Lord Morpeth has accused the Irish in America of "being the worst enemies of the men of color," shall be atoned for and blotted out, and effaced forever.

You will ask how you can do all these things? You have already answered that question yourselves for you have said that public opinion is the law of America Contribute, then, each of you in his sphere, to make up that public opinion Where you have the electoral franchise, give your vote to none but those who will assist you in so holy a struggle

Under a popular government, the man who has right, and reason, and justice, and charity and Christianity itself on his side, has great instruments of legislation and legal power He has the elements about him of the greatest utility and even if he should not succeed, he can have the heart soothing consolation of having endeavored to do great and good actions. He can enjoy, even in defeat, the sweet comfort of having endeavored to promote benevolence and charity.

It is no excuse to allege that the Congress is restricted from emancipating the slaves by one general law. Each particular slave State has that power within its own precincts, and there is every reason to be convinced that Maryland and Virginia would have followed the example of New York and long ago abolished slavery, but for the diabolical practice of "raising" as you call it, slaves for the Southern market of pestilence and death

Irishmen and the sons of Irishmen have, many of them, risen to high distinction and power in America Why did not Irishmen and the sons of Irishmen write their names in the brightest pages of the chapter of humanity and benevolence in American history?

Irishmen! Our Chairman ventures to think, and we agree with him, that he has claims on the attention of Irishmen in every quarter of the globe

The Scotch and French philosophers have proved by many years of experiment that the Irishman stands first among the races of man in his physical and bodily powers America and Europe bear testimony to the intellectual capacity of Irishmen Lord Morpeth has demonstrated to the British Parliament the superior morality of the humble classes of Irish in all social and family relations. The religious fidelity of the Irish nation is blazoned in glorious and proverbial certainty and splendor

Irishmen! sons of Irishmen! descendants of the kind of heart and affectionate in disposition, think, oh think only with pity and compassion on your colored fellow creatures in America Offer them the band of kindly help Sooth their sorrows Scathe their oppressor. Join with your countrymen at home in one cry of horror against the oppressor, in one cry of sympathy with the enslaved and oppressed

> Till prone in the dust slavery shall be hurl'd—
> Its name and nature blotted from the world"

We cannot close our observations on the unseemly, as well as the silly attacks you make upon the advocates of Abolition, without reminding you that you that you have borrowed this turn of thought from the persons who opposed Catholic Emancipation in Ireland, or who were the pretended friends of the Catholics

Some of you must recollect that it was the custom of such persons to allege that but for the violence and "misconduct" of the agitators, and more particularly of our Chairman, the Protestants were about to emancipate the Catholics gradually It was the constant theme of the newspaper press, and even of the speeches in the House of Parliament, that the violence and misconduct of agitators prevented emancipation. It was the burden of many pamphlets, and especially of two, which were both written under the title of "Faction Unmasked," by Protestants of great ability They asserted themselves to be friends of Emancipation in the abstract, but they alleged it was impossible to grant Emancipation to persons whose leaders misconducted themselves as the agitators did They gratified their hatred to the Catholics as you gratify your feeling towards the negroes by abusing the Catholic leaders as virulent as yours is against the Abolitionists. But they deceived nobody, Neither do you deceive anybody Every human being perceives the futility and folly of your attacks upon the Abolitionists, and understand that these attacks are but the exhibition of rancor and malignity against the tried friends of humanity

You say that the Abolitionists are fanatics and bigots, and especially entertain a virulent hatred and unchristian zeal against Catholicity and the Irish We do not wish to deny, nor do we wish to conceal, that there are among the Abolitionists many wicked and calumniating enemies of Catholicity and the Irish especially in that most intolerant class the Wesleyan Methodist, but the best way to disarm their malice is not by giving up to them the side of humanity, while you, yourselves, take the side of slavery. But, on the contrary, by taking the superior station of Christian virtue in the cause of benevolence and charity, and in zeal for the freedom of all mankind.

We wish we could burn into your souls the turpitude attached to the Irish-Americans by Lord Morpeth's charge Recollect that it reflects dishonor not only upon you, but upon the land of your birth There is but one way of effacing such disgrace, and that is by becoming the most kindly toward the colored population, and the most energetic in working out in detail, as well as in general principle, the amelioration of the state of the miserable bondsmen

You tell us indeed, that many clergymen, and especially the Catholic clergy, are ranged on the side of the slaveholders We do not believe your accusation

The Catholic clergy may endure, but they certainly do not encourage slaveowners We have, indeed, heard it said that some Catholic clergymen have slaves of their own, but it is added, and we are assured positively, that no Irish Catholic clergyman is a slaveowner At all events every Irish Catholic knows how distinctly slaveholding and especially slavetrading is condemned by the Catholic church The most eminent man, His Holiness, the present Pope, has, by Allocution published throughout the world, condemned all dealing and traffic in slaves Nothing can be more distinct or more powerful than the Pope's denunciation of that most abominable crime. Yet it subsists in a more abominable form than his Holiness could possibly describe, in the traffic which still exists in the sale of slaves, from one State in America to another

What then, are we to think of you, Irish Catholics who send us an elaborate vindication of Slavery without the slightest censure of that hateful crime? A crime which the Pope has so completely condemned—namely, the diabolical raising of slaves for sale, and selling them to other States

If you be Catholics you should devote your time and best exertions to working out the pious intentions of His Holiness Yet you prefer [illegible] to volunteer your vindication of everything that belongs to the guilt of Slavery

If you be christians at all, recollect that slavery is opposed to the first, the highest, and the greatest principles of christianity, which teach us to love the great and good God above all things whatsoever" and the next "to love our fellow-man as ourselves" which commands us "to do unto others as we would be done by." These sacred principles are inconsistent with the horrors and crimes of slavery, sacred principles which have already banished domestic bondage from civilized Europe, and which will also, in God's own good time, banish it from America, despite the advocacy of such puny [illegible] as you are

How bitterly have we been afflicted at [illegible] by the American newspapers, that recently in the city which you inhabit an opportunity was given to the Irish to exhibit benevolence and humanity to a fellow creature, and given in vain. We allude to the case of the girl Lavinia, who was a slave in another State, and brought by her owner into that of Ohio She by that [illegible] became entitled to freedom, if she had but one friend to assert it for her She did find friends may the great God of Heaven bless them! Were they Irish? Alas! alas! not one. You sneer at the sectaries. Behold how they now conquer you in goodness and charity! The owner's name, it seems, was Scanlan, unhappily a [illegible] Irish name. And he, it appears, has boasted that he took his revenge by the most [illegible] cruelty, not upon Lavinia or her protectors, for they were not in his power, but on her [illegible] ing father, mother and family.

And this is the system which you, Irishmen, through many folio pages of wicked [illegible] seek at least to palliate, if not to justify it.

Our cheeks burn with shame to think that such a monster as Scanlan could trace his pedigree to Ireland And yet you, Irishmen, stand by in the attitude rather of friends and supporters [illegible] of impugners of the monstrous cruelty. And you prefer to string together pages of cruel and [illegible] less sophistry in defence of the source of his crime rather than take part against him

Perhaps it would offend your fastidiousness if such a man was compared to a felon or pickpocket We respect your prejudices, and call him no reproachful name It is, indeed, unnecessary.

We conclude by conjuring you, and all the Irishmen in America, in the name of your fatherland,—in the name of humanity—in the name of the God of mercy and charity—we conjure you, Irishmen and descendants of Irishmen, to abandon forever all defence of the hideous Slavery system Let it no more be said that your feelings are made so obtuse by the air of America that you cannot feel as Catholics and Christians ought to feel, this truth—this plain truth that one man cannot have any property in another man There is not one of you who does not recognize that principle in his own person. Yet we perceive—and this agonises us almost to [illegible]—that you, boasting an Irish descent, [illegible], without the instigation of any pecuniary [illegible]ested motive, but out of the sheer and single love of wickedness and crime, come forward as the voluntary defenders of the most degrading [illegible] of human Slavery. Woe! Woe! Woe!

There is one consolation still, amid the pulsations of our hearts There are—there, must be genuine Irishmen in America—men of sound heads and Irish hearts, who will assist us to wipe out the foul stain that Lord Morpeth's [illegible] charge has inflicted on the Irish character—who will hold out the hand of fellowship, with a heart in that hand, to every honest man of every [illegible] and color—who will sustain the cause of [illegible]ty and honor, and scorn the paltry advocates of Slavery—who will show that the Irish heart is in America as benevolent and replete with charitable emotions as in any other clime on the face of the earth

We conclude The spirit of democratic liberty is defiled by the continuance of negro slavery in the United States. The United States [illegible] are degraded below the most civilised nations by the atrocious inconsistency of talking of liberty and practicing tyranny in its worst shape. The American attempt to palliate their iniquity by the futile excuse of personal interest; but the Irish, who have not even the futile excuse and yet justify slavery, are utterly indefensible.

Once again, and for the last time, we call upon you to come out of the councils of the slaveholders, and at all events, to free yourselves from participating in their guilt.

Irishmen, we call upon you to join in crushing slavery, and in giving liberty to every man, of every caste, creed, or color.

Chairman of the Committee.

The Great Letter of the Irish Patriot O'Connell

For years past the demagogues of the so called Democratic party have labored unremittingly to array our fellow citizens of foreign birth against the Republican party, by vulgar tirades against the colored race. The Republican party is denounced for its sympathy with "niggers," and an effort is made to show that it entirely disregards the claims of the white man. The sympathy of that party for the colored race grows out of its sympathy for the cause of humanity, which is manifested for men of every race and nationality. The Herald of this city copies and editorially commends, an article from the Idaho World, a paper edited by a besotted, narrow-minded malignant, of half American and half Irish origin, and an equal disgrace to both countries—an article which alleges that the "Radical majority in both Houses of Congress have found plenty of time to legislate for negroes, but has found no time to legislate in behalf of American citizens of Irish birth who linger in British prisons for no offence committed on British soil" and that the policy of the "Radical party" is "to degrade the Irish citizen and elevate the negro above him." It is true that the editor of the World who claims to be an Irishman, is like many "Democratic" citizens of American birth, in that he distrusts his ability to compete with the negro. But what are the facts in regard to the course of the majority in Congress respecting American citizens of Irish birth? That majority has done everything in its power in behalf of those who are unjustly held in British prisons. In this respect it has done what the Democratic party never did. It has made an appropriation of money for the relief of this class of our citizens, and made it the duty of the Secretary of State to see that the matter is properly attended to. It has instituted measures to require of England a recognition of our naturalization laws and the right of expatriation, and has carried this matter much farther than it was ever carried before. It has effected a treaty with the North German Confederation, securing the recognition of the American principle that emigration shall be free, and that naturalization changes nationality—a treaty which, without doubt will do much to open the way for a similar treaty with the British Government. The Republican party would give equal protection and equal rights before the laws to all classes of men. This is the very foundation of its creed. It abhors unjust discriminations, and leaves to its opponents the disgraceful work of arraying one class or race against another.

As so persistent an effort is made by demagogues, in the interest of a party which has always been opposed to human rights, to work upon the prejudices of Irishmen by endeavoring to show that there is an antagonism between them and the colored race, we publish to-day a letter written by the great Irish patriot, O'Connell, in 1843, to the Irishmen of America, in which the negro question is discussed with an earnestness, an enlightened judgment and a clear comprehension of the [illegible] of humanity and civilization, which do honor to that great man and to the country which gave him birth. We bespeak for it the attentive perusal of our fellow-citizens of Irish birth. We ask them to weigh well the words of one of the noblest of their own countrymen, who gave all the energies of his mighty genius to the cause of human liberty. And to those narrow souled hounds of despotism who are continually appealing to the passions and prejudices of the native-born, as well as citizens of foreign birth, against the negro, we say, read this eloquent address and be confounded!

The Primaries

The primaries, for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention, will be held to-day. There is a determination among the Union men of the city that everything shall be fairly conducted. The respective candidates and their friends are resolved that no wrong doing shall be tolerated, and that full opportunity shall be given to all members of the party to express their preference for delegates. It is indispensable that this course should be pursued. Let it be understood that the man who would introduce any element of discord into the Union organization shall have a heavy account to settle with the Union party. It is easy enough to get an honest expression of the opinion of the majority of the party in a city no larger than Portland. By pursuing the right course to-day we shall render the Union party invincible in Multnomah county. Harmonious action is what we want, and then there can be no fear of the result in the June election.

The "organ" don't expect its powerful recitals of the "wrongs" of the South "to reach the heart of a full-fledged Radical." No; nor did the more powerful appeals of Gov. Whiteaker, Jo Lane, Jo Smith, Judge Wait, Col. Kelly, et id omne genus, urging the people of Oregon in 1861, not to give countenance to "the wicked and unnatural war upon the South," reach the stony hearts of the "full fledged Radicals." These "full fledged Radicals" are a terrible set. Their hearts could not be reached in 1861 by those who urged them to give the country up to the rebels, nor can they be reached by similar appeals now.

The Ohio Legislature have passed an act declaring that no person having a visible admixture of negro blood shall vote in that State. Under the laws of Ohio all persons nearer white than black have heretofore always voted, and this rule was established by the Democratic party, and was re-affirmed in the most emphatic manner by the Democratic Supreme Court of the State. To that extent, negro suffrage has always existed in Ohio.

OF INTEREST TO LAWYERS.—Mr. Williams, the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, has received from D. W. Middleton, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, notice of the late adoption by the Supreme Court of a rule of practice requiring that every record filed in the office of such Clerk shall be accompanied by a precipe to enter the appearance of some member of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States [illegible] of the [illegible]. This [illegible] the Clerk of the [illegible] record of a case [illegible] until [illegible] the appearance and the counsel for the plaintiff in error or appellant shall be entered, and no motion to dismiss, except on special assignment by the Court, shall be heard, unless previous notice has been given to the adverse party, or the counsel or attorney of such party.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 17.

Impeachment.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—In the Senate Sumner offered as an order that all evidence offered by either side be admitted as testimony without debate. Conness moved to lay the resolution on table. Adopted—35 to 11. Stanbery is still sick. Evarts announced that he would proceed without him.

Walter D. Cox, lawyer, was called by the counsel and questioned in reference to his connection with the case of Stanton vs. Thomas. Witness proceeded to state a conversation with the President.

Butler objected.

After an argument on both sides, the President's counsel saying that they proposed to prove that the President employed Cox to test the constitutionality of the Tenure-of-Office act before the Courts, the Senate admitted the evidence.

The witness said the President stated that he desired to have the proceedings instituted to test the constitutionality of the act, and he advised him to consult with Stanbery on the subject. He then proceeded to detail the proceedings before Justice Carter, resulting in the discharge of Gen. Thomas in spite of the attempts of the counsel to have him committed, so that they could sue out writs of habeas corpus. He did not tell the Court or opposing counsel that it was his object to get the case in train to test the constitutionality of the Tenure of Office law, but he supposed they divined his object.

Bradley, Sen., testified that he was advisory counsel to Gen. Thomas. He stated in detail all the events connected with the trial, eliciting nothing not heretofore known in regard to the matter.

The counsel for the President offered to prove that the President had informed the Attorneys for Thomas that he had removed Stanton, and would soon send to the Senate a good name for the position, that he did not anticipate resistance in regard to the arrangement, which was only temporary. Not allowed.

The Senate then adjourned.

The Erie Railroad Disaster

NEW YORK, April 16.—The deaths by the Erie railroad disaster number thirty four. Six of the bodies are unrecognized.

Illinois Politics.

CHICAGO, April 16.—The Democratic State Convention, yesterday, at Springfield, nominated John R. Eden for Governor, Wm. H. Van Epps for Lieutenant Governor, W. M. O'Brien for Congressman at large, Gustavus Von Hoorsbeck for Secretary of State, Jesse J. Phillips for Treasurer; J. R. Shannon for Auditor and R. E. Williams for Attorney General. The resolutions denounce the Congressional plan of reconstruction and the impeachment movement, discusses the financial question at great length, favors the payment of the national debt in greenbacks, opposes the present tariff system, favors abolishing the national banks and replacing their issues with greenbacks, favors the taxing of bonds and instructs the delegates to the National Convention to vote for Pendleton for President.

Pacific Railroad Advancing.

The Tribune's Omaha special says the Union Pacific Railroad crossed the summit of the Rocky Mountains to-day. The rails on the summit were laid by T. C. Durant, Vice President, Sydney Dillon, Director, General Dodge, the Chief Engineer, and other officers of the company, assisted by a number of army officers.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The Times' Port Jervis special says that robberies were committed upon the dead and wounded passengers in the railroad disaster by the passengers who were in the forward cars. Money in large sums, gold watches and jewelry were taken from the victims. In one instance a file was used to release a diamond ring from a lady in a half conscious situation. The people who were at the scene, could not protect the sufferers from sacrilege.

The Tribune's special says the coroner's jury says the accident was caused by a broken rail. They express the opinion that the occurrence might have been avoided had the train been running at less speed.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Havana dates from Hayti are to the 11th. The Cacos have been victorious. Their intentions are unknown. They had as yet issued no manifesto. Salnave is in a critical condition. It is rumored the Americans are assisting the revolutionists. The escape of President Salnave was considered impossible, as the Cacos occupied two hundred miles of Cape Haytien. The American Minister is daily expected at Port au Prince.

Nassau dates are to the 12th. Great excitement has been occasioned by Gov. Rawson's dissolving the Legislature for not granting supplies to the Church.

The steamer Fulton from Aspinwall, on the 7th, has arrived.

Active preparations have been made by the Panama government to quell the revolution.

Honduras dates to the 5th confirm the report that an American colony is about to settle at San Pedro on the Atlantic coast.

A treaty has been concluded with London and Brussels bankers for the establishment of a National Bank with a capital of one million, with privilege to extend it to one million pounds, the object being to develope commerce, agriculture and river navigation.

LONDON, April 16.—The British Postoffice Department is about to send Anthony Trollope to Washington to re-adjust the details of the postal convention.

The great labor mass meeting was at St. Johns Hall, every portion of which was crowded. Earl Russell presided. Addresses were made by Henry Fawcett, Sir Gray, Mr. Mill and others. Resolutions were adopted demanding the disendowment of all religious sects in Ireland, declaring that keeping Tories in office after the recent vote of the House of Commons against them, had violated Constitutional usage, and that they should give place to Gladstone and the leaders of the majority in Parliament.

The Fenian General Nagles and six others sailed to-day for America, under promise never to return.

The Danish government has commenced negotiations for the sale of the Island of Santa Cruz to France.

COPENHAGEN, April 16.—Denmark has rejected the proposition of Prussia that the former should cede certain forts and territories to Prussia.

PARIS, April 16.—A duel was fought yesterday near Munich between the late Russian Ambassador Leydendorff and the present Ambassador, Baron Budberg. The latter was seriously wounded and will resign his office.

LONDON, April 17.—It has been widely rumored to-day that advices have been received from Abyssinia that the captives have been released and that the war is over. The dispatch from Gen. Napier does not confirm the rumor, although the news was favorable to the expedition. It has advanced to within sixty miles of Magdala. The troops are in good spirits.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—E. H. Clark has obtained judgment against the Bulletin for $6,000 for libel, in having reported by mistake that Clark had been convicted on a charge of embracery.

The steamship company feel no alarm on account of the non-arrival of the Constitution. It is probable she has been delayed by heavy head winds and northwest gales which prevailed for several days along the southern coast above.

Ninety new ejectment suits commenced to-day in the U. S. Circuit Court. The property involved is situated all over the State. The great rush of ejectment suits arises from the fact that the limitation statute expires to-day.

FOR THE PACIFIC COAST.—An apropos of [illegible] by the late speakers at the breaking of [illegible] trade, in relation to the population which [illegible] transportation would bring us we quote [illegible] from the San Francisco Commercial Herald:

"The passenger movement of this port for the first quarter of the present year shows a very remarkable increase over that of any other quarter in the last ten years. The number of arrivals by sea, in excess of departures, during the whole of 1867 was 15,288, but in the last three [illegible] we have gained 7,542, or more than half as much during the whole of last year. Each returning steamer brings large accessions, whilst hundreds are coming to us from Australia and other countries, by sail. The low prices for fare in the steamers have proved a great inducement, and we trust that they will continue. Small profits [illegible] business is taking the place of monopoly and high prices."

While the rapid increase of population mentioned by the Herald is due in great part to cheap fares and facilities for quick traveling, it also shows that the people of the Eastern States and foreign countries have their eyes turned toward the Pacific States and Territories with an eagerness of longing never before known since the halcyon days of gold digging, now long since passed away. People, attracted by our never failing agricultural [illegible] and developing avenues of remunerative industry, are coming to stay, to be part of our permanent population. It is fortunate for us that just at this juncture there is a first class opposition line of steamers between New York and San Francisco, since it affords the people who desire to come to us, opportunities to do so, without requiring a small fortune for the cost of the trip. It [illegible] to the poor man the hard fisted laborer within the compass of his means. He comes [illegible] and goes to work, to help us develop our grain-[illegible] acres, and our rapidly multiplying branches of farming, mining and mechanical industry. Viewed in the light of a feeder to our population, the North American Steamship Company may be considered a great public blessing to the Pacific coast. In the same light, a much greater public blessing must be a railroad connecting us with the Eastern States, when it is considered that it will multiply every present demand for population and that it will offer a cheaper and quicker passage hither than do now the steamships!

COLUMBIA RIVER SCENERY.—It will be recollected that during last summer, Mr. Chas. E. Watkins, an artist of [illegible] accomplishments, visited this city and thence up the Columbia river for the purpose of sketching some of the notable scenery of river and mountain. The result of his labors may be seen in a series of magnificent photographs of various points between Vancouver and [illegible] now on exhibition at Shanahan's Art Gallery. They are in heavy frames, suitable for wall pictures, in [illegible]. They are eighteen in number and are designated [illegible]: Mt. Hood, from Sunset Hill, Dalles; Mt. [illegible] from the shore opposite Government Island, Columbia river; Mt. Hood, from Five Mile Creek; Mt. Adams, from Sunset Hill, Dalles; Bradford's Island, [illegible]; Columbia River, perspective view from the Upper Cascades, same, at the Middle Landing, from the [illegible]; same, looking up from the Upper Cascades, same, looking down from the Upper Cascades; Dalles City, from Rockland, opposite Railroad Depot; same, from Sunset Hill, Upper Cascades, from the Oregon [illegible]; Block House, at Upper Cascades; Middle [illegible], from the Railroad; Cape Horn, from the [illegible] shore, above, Castle Rock, similar view; the Old Garrison and Tumwater, near Celilo. We have never seen a [illegible] set of pictures of western scenery.

[illegible] POTATOES.—Mr. L. H. Wakefield, who recently [illegible] from the Eastern States, brought with him [illegible] Vermont, four potatoes—two of the variety called the "Early Goodrich" and two called the "Harrison," which are of the most prolific varieties raised in [illegible]. The former is said to yield on moderate [illegible] soil in Vermont, three hundred bushels potatoes per acre, and the latter, four hundred bushels. The "Goodrich" potatoes, especially, are as handsome as we ever saw. Mr R. E. Chatfield, of the [illegible] seed store offered yesterday, $4 for the four potatoes, which was refused, but he will have them to plant on his farm, and will next year have, perhaps, a few to [illegible]. Mr. Wakefield says that last season, his brother-in Vermont, raised of the Harrison variety, on [illegible] as would be called poor in Oregon, six hundred [illegible] per acre. It will be worth something to Oregon, to have a few of such varieties generally introduced.

THE PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.—The concert last evening by the Philharmonic Society, was in every respect equal to any of its former efforts, so far as depended upon [illegible], and the manner in which their performances were received. The audience was smaller than upon most of their former concerts, but was decidedly as appreciative one and made up in applause what it [illegible] in contributions of "material aid." After hearing the programme through, our judgment is that very decided improvement has been made by the [illegible], if not in voice, yet in manner of rendering their pieces; and without offense we may say that in this direction there was the greatest room for improvement. The reception with which the Society was met, was certainly one to reassure them of the high favor in which the Portland people hold them.

THE PRIMARIES.—J. J. Hoffman and J. Howell, the Union County Committee, give notice that the primaries in this city, to nominate delegates to the Union County Convention, will be held to-day at the following places: North Portland Precinct, at Sherlock's building, corner of Second and Oak Streets, Central Precinct, at the Court House; South Precinct, at Harker's building on Front Street, between Clay and Columbia. The polls will be opened at one o'clock P. M., and remain open till five P. M. A new division of the precincts was recently made by the County Commissioners, but the call was made under the old arrangement, which must be observed in holding the primaries this year, as it would be impossible to ascertain the vote and apportion the delegates [illegible] a new division of the Precincts.

DISBURSEMENTS BY THE ARMY.—The Commercial Herald of San Francisco states the army expenditures for the Division of the Pacific, during the first three months of the present year, at $1,418,739. The greatest amount of [illegible] has been incurred by the Quartermaster's Department, which includes transportation, clothing, tent and equipage; payment of laborers and others on [illegible] works, and other matters of like character. [illegible] of the Commissariat have also been increased by reason of the higher price of provisions, and the greater number of troops in the Division.

A STEAMER A WEEK.—Mr. Weidler, Agent for the C. O. & M. S. S. Co. informs us that hereafter, a steamer will leave San Francisco every Saturday, for Portland. The Ajax will sail to day. The Oriflamme and the Pacific will both call here on their return from the north. These, together with the sailing vessels now here, and [illegible] between this and the 10th of May, will clear our [illegible] warehouses of their produce, and the interior [illegible] can then forward their supplies with a certainty of immediate shipment below.

CIRCUS TO-NIGHT.—Mr. Bartholomew has decided to [illegible] this evening. Among the attractions [illegible] will be a bare-back somersault act by Mr. Wm. Franklin—a feat never before attempted on the Pacific coast. Those very intelligent ponies whose [illegible] were admired by everybody when the circus was here last fall, will appear in several new and astonishing [illegible]. Besides these, there will be the usual [illegible] of riding, feats of strength, gymnastics, witticisms [illegible] by the clown, etc., etc.

[illegible] IN SUPERVISOR WATSON'S CASE.—The county [illegible] two terms has been engaged in an examination of [illegible] accounts of W. P. Watson, Supervisor of Road District No. 17, it being objected that he had overcharged [illegible]. A decision was finally reached by the [illegible], yesterday, to the effect that they find his [illegible] overcharged to the amount of $133 26 and that he be required to refund that sum. Mr. Watson has [illegible] that he will apply, at the next term for a [illegible]

[illegible] TELEGRAPH.—Mr. Haines, the Superintendent of the Dalles telegraph line was in town yesterday [illegible] that the line is up and in working order to [illegible] about six miles from Portland. The country [illegible] the Sandy—high table lands—is a rough region for the construction of a telegraph, being uneven and [illegible] with brush, which has to be cleared away [illegible], as soon as the weather becomes settled, Mr [illegible] will push the line along with the utmost possible [illegible]

[illegible]—Dr. W. Bowlby, of Washington county, [illegible] candidate for Presidential Elector, called on us [illegible]. The Dr. has been severely ill but is now recovering, with cheering prospects of soon being [illegible] well. He will remain in the city for a short time. Dr. B. is one of Oregon's best men and we rejoice [illegible] that his health is so surely becoming better and that he will soon be able to show himself to his friends in [illegible] of the State.

[illegible] BALL AT THE WHITE HOUSE.—We are informed that [illegible] of nines from the base ball players of this city [illegible] an excursion this morning, starting at about [illegible] o'clock, to the White House, for the purpose of christening the grounds lately prepared by the new proprietor of the place. The grounds are said to be in excellent [illegible], and a rare day's sport may be expected.

[illegible] PRODUCTS.—Arrived yesterday, per steamer [illegible], 1,000 qr sks flour and 2 sks beans. Per Senator, [illegible] and 15 cases bacon, 149 bags wheat, 10 hlf [illegible] dried apples, 5 boxes eggs, 1 bale wool socks, 16 [illegible] lard, 3 boxes apples. Per Alert, 662 bags wheat, [illegible] qr sks flour, 231 boxes apples, 300 sks feed and 8 [illegible] eggs.

[illegible] OF IRISHMEN.—There will be a meeting of the [illegible] Irish-Americans at the Fenian Guard's Hall, at [illegible] o'clock this evening, and a full attendance is requested. Matters of importance to Irish laborers and to the lovers of their adopted country, will be brought before the meeting.

[illegible] REDUCTION OF FARE.—Hereafter and until further notice, the steamer Senator will leave Oregon City for Portland, at 8 o'clock A. M., and leave Portland on her return, at 3 o'clock P. M. Fare either way on the Senator will be only twenty five cents.

A NEW STEAMBOAT IN CONTEMPLATION.—It is rumored that a number of old steamboatmen are about forming a [illegible] for the purpose of putting one or more [illegible] on the upper Willamette. The rumor [illegible] has a pretty good basis.

TO BREAK GROUND.—Capt. Richard White, the owner of the lots on the corner of Morrison and Front streets, where the recent fire occurred, will break ground on [illegible] for a large fire proof brick building.

ARRIVED AT VICTORIA.—A telegram from Victoria, last evening, announces the arrival of the steamship Active [illegible] this port.

LABORERS WANTED.—We are informed that the contractors of the Oregon Central Railroad are in want of more laborers.

THE NEW COLUMBIAN HOTEL.—Mr. E. Carney has leased and re-opened the New Columbian Hotel. We acknowledge the receipt of his compliments in the shape of very acceptable refreshments last evening.

CIRCUIT COURT IN VACATION.—Judgment by default was entered yesterday against defendants in the case of [illegible] A. Blanchard vs. [illegible] Houser and [illegible], [illegible] to $127 50.

SENT TO THE HOSPITAL.—A man named William Stevens [illegible] the present week to the county hospital.

NOTICE.—The Fenian Aid Society and all Irishmen and friends of Irish liberty are requested to meet at the Armory of the Fenian Guard to-morrow (Sunday) April 19th, at [illegible] o'clock P. M., as business of importance will come before the meeting. Per order,

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND April 1[illegible] 1868

[illegible] the evening of the [illegible] at New York at 35 [illegible] Legal T[illegible] [illegible] ket at 1 4¼ 2 a slight decline [illegible] last report.

The New York [illegible] Bankers [illegible] The [illegible]

The [illegible] Exchange [illegible] market though the [illegible] considerably reduced [illegible] year for the same period. This being the case the transactions [illegible] apply going forward [illegible] the vessels plying [illegible] more than [illegible] Oregon [illegible] sales of flour are quoted by telegraph at $7 2[illegible] Wheat quiet with sales [illegible] In addition [illegible] quoted in that market by telegraph we give the [illegible] from the [illegible] latest [illegible] Bran in [illegible] Potatoes $1 [illegible] Onions [illegible] Tallow [illegible] Dry hides, 14@14 [illegible] Wool firm at 12½@16c [illegible] bacon [illegible] Mess beef $13@18 [illegible] Pork—prime $1[illegible] lard [illegible] extra clear [illegible] Lard 14@15c.

The Alta of the latest date received discussing the prospects of breadstuffs says: Taking into account the price of gold, the cost of transportation, and the Eastern prices, there is as much money in the shipments now as at that time although the price is higher here. Of the transportation facilities of the Pacific coast the Commercial Herald says: "The Pacific Mail Steamship Co. and the North American Steamship Co. are carrying large amounts of flour to New York at low freights and the demand for a rapid movement of our breadstuffs in that direction, together with the strong competition existing between the two lines have induced the former [illegible] to lay on another steamer and establish weekly communication with the Atlantic seaboard. On the other hand the high rates for freight ruling on the steamship line to Oregon operates very disadvantageously to the farmers of that State who appear to be wholly in the power of that monopoly. It is just barely possible that these exactions may result in establishing a permanent opposition line giving the required relief."

In relation to the latter part of the Herald's paragraph we may say that there are indications favorable to the establishment of such an opposition. The North American Steamship Co. have had the matter under consideration for some time and have determined, as we have been informed within the last day or two—to place one or two steamers on the Oregon route at the earliest practicable day. It is more than probable that opposition steamers will be plying regularly from this port, by the time the crop of 1868 shall begin to move.

We have little change to note in our local markets. Trade for the last week has been fair in most lines of goods, though business has been much interrupted the last two or three days by the excitement consequent upon the breaking of ground for two lines of railroads from this city southward—the Oregon Central on the west side, on Wednesday, and the Oregon Central on the east side on Thursday. These two events are the theme of general conversation and the people are looking with anxiety to, and speculating upon the future, as it may be expected on the progress of these great enterprises.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL surpasses all other remedies in the rapid and radical cure of Colds, Coughs and Consumption.

ASTHMA.—This disease causes great difficulty of breathing and tightness across the chest and sometimes attended with a great deal of suffocation. The paroxysms generally come on at night, while lying down; sometimes it is attended with great violence. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will always give immediate relief and in many cases if persevered in it will cure the disease altogether. For sale by dealers in family medicines.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Intestinal disorders it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. The hands [illegible] resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

DIVIDEND, JAN'Y 1, 1868,

FORTY PER CENT. UPON ALL POLICIES THAT have been in force five years and payable on the anniversaries of the renewals of said policies.

This Company in declaring its Dividends does so by THE PERCENTAGE SYSTEM, thus each insurer, WHETHER HE IS A RICH MAN OR A POOR MAN, A PROMINENT CITIZEN OR AN HUMBLE CITIZEN, SHARES ALIKE.

PREMIUM SYSTEM.

CASH, WHEN REQUIRED. NOTES ARE HOWEVER TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums, thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually CANCEL THE NOTES.

How different this is from a Cash Company which exact all Cash under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy holder when he is unable to pay his annual premium.

REMEMBER

That the OLD MANHATTAN never promises Extravagant Dividends to [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] with them. Their Dividends [illegible] the past have always been equal to all well managed first class Companies and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future. It never villifies the character of other Companies [illegible]. THE MANHATTAN'S [illegible] are its best advocates. The business of the Company [illegible]

After some months [illegible] [illegible] satisfactory results. I have [illegible] some severe tests. For instance while [illegible] the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches I [illegible] the planer with a 9 inch knife cutting from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch depth without in the least slacking the speed. After these [illegible] tests [illegible] I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffel with gates one-third open. At half gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first and absent from the State at the second trial.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus also lie in to the [illegible] Look at their pallid, [illegible] faces and their broken down [illegible] disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] the enjoyment of life. In the horrid situation [illegible] sanders [illegible] friends, [illegible] the scene. Let your [illegible] guardians, friends, attend those who are suffering [illegible] any of these [illegible] malady [illegible] they are cured [illegible] before it be too late. [illegible] them in [illegible] O[illegible] physician who has made private diseases a speciality for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of the afflicted, to be careful of the many [illegible] doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse, solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained [illegible] happily immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and excellent Remedies [illegible] which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are unable, any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written [illegible] treatment [illegible] binding himself to a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. For Ten Dollars, enclosed in a letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus diplomas and certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and know how to work at their trades. Some are tailors, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid [illegible] is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive [illegible] by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he [illegible] professes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1957 ON THE [illegible]

Consultations FREE.
